

—LIBRARIANS AS LEADERS—

As a school librarian, you serve many roles—directing teachers to resources, guiding students in research, leading PD events—supporting learning in so many ways! Now you have a unique opportunity to advance your own learning and become even more valuable to your school community—become your school's TPS Coach!

Librarians as Leaders is a FREE six-week professional development course designed by and facilitated by librarian and TPS educational consultant, Jennifer Hanson, to help you develop the skills and knowledge you need to bring Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources to your colleagues. The workshop includes synchronous chat sessions supplemented by independent reading, peer discussions, and project development outside of class. Earn up to 28 Continuing Education Activity Hours.

ONLINE
WEDNESDAYS
FEBRUARY THROUGH APRIL
26th THROUGH 2nd
5:30PM TO 6:30PM

Graduates of TPS Level 1 are welcome to register; others are asked to complete the six online modules before attending. Visit <http://www.loc.gov/teachers/professionaldevelopment/selfdirected/> to locate modules.

Those who submit certificates of completion will receive six additional continuing education activity hours.

REGISTER TODAY FOR THIS FREE WORKSHOP

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/LibrariansAsLeaders>

— FOR MORE INFORMATION —

Sue Wise

Associate Director, TPS at
Waynesburg University
swise@waynesburg.edu | (724)852-3377

Bibliographic Information: <http://tps.waynesburg.edu/documents/381-regional-folder-bibliographic-information>

WAYNESBURG UNIVERSITY